Meet Ian Adair

To the magicians of a generation ago, Ian Adair needs no introduction. But for some of the newer generation, the impressive achievements of this incredible magic creator, who has contributed to this art for nearly 70 years, Ian's many laurels need to be recorded.

We at Funtime have been very lucky, and honoured to have marketed over 100 of Ian's clever notions. And Ian's output has been many times more than the creations we have been able to do justice to.

So just who is this prolific magic genius ?
